Welcome to 8503 Marquette Street, a truly exceptional Vienna residence where thoughtful design, modern luxury, and everyday comfort come together seamlessly. Originally a rambler, this home has been completely reimagined, retaining its original foundation and footprint while being transformed through an extensive top to bottom rebuild and substantial pop up addition. The result is a beautifully redesigned home that offers the benefits of brand new construction while honoring the integrity of its original placement in one of Vienna's most desirable neighborhoods.

Crafted by Omari Design Builds, this home reflects a meticulous standard of construction and finish. At Omari Design Builds, every material is selected with intention, balancing durability, functionality, and timeless design, and that philosophy is felt in every room.

From the moment you enter, the home makes an unforgettable first impression with soaring 12 foot ceilings and a bright, open
